The screenshot shows the Yaskawa Thailand website. At the top, the Yaskawa logo and navigation menu are visible. A breadcrumb trail reads "Robotics > Motoman Robot". An orange arrow points from this trail to a large orange box containing the text "Robotics > Replacement Parts". Below this, a blue header bar contains a "FIND PARTS" dropdown and a search bar with "Parts & Accessories" selected. A red rectangle highlights the search bar area. The main content area is titled "YASKAWA REPLACEMENT PARTS" and "ROBOT PARTS". It features a grid of product images with labels: DX100, DX200, FS100, NX100, XRC, and YRC1000mic. Each product has a "Browse" button. A red circle highlights the "Browse" button for the YRC1000mic, and an orange arrow points from it to a box labeled "CLICK".
